Presenting Our Sensational 2017-2018 Mainstage Season:

Addams Family Musical

Directed for cwACT by: Joseph Nowinski
October 27-29, November 3-4 2017

Book by Marshall Brickman & Rick Elice
Music and Lyrics by Andrew Lippa

In the upside-down world of the Addams Family, to be sad is to be happy, to feel pain is to feel joy, and death and suffering are the stuff of their dreams. However, they still have to deal with the same challenge faced by any other family: the kids growing up. In one fateful, hilarious night, when Wednesday invites her boyfriend's sweet, kind family over for dinner, secrets are disclosed, relationships are tested, and the Addams family must face the one horrible thing they've managed to avoid for generations: change.

Private Lives, 2017

The Smell of the Kill By Michelle Lowe

Directed for cwACT by Wendy Fait
February 2-4, 9-11 2018

Take three delicious, malicious wives, add three miserable, unloving husbands—and chill. This dark comedy revolves around Nicky, Debra and Molly who have tolerated one another during once-a-month dinners for years. While their unseen spouses play golf in the dining room, the women exchange confidences for the first time revealing all three marriages are on the brink of disaster. When the men mistakenly lock themselves in a basement meat locker the women are faced with a life-or-death decision—should they leave the men out in the cold—permanently—or let them thaw?

Leaving Iowa By Tim Clue and Spike Manton

Directed for cwACT by Steve Martin
May 12-14, 2018

A wonderful combination of nostalgia and humor, tears and laughter, Leaving Iowa the story of Don Browning, a middle-aged writer, who has a mission to take his father's ashes to his childhood home, as requested. But when Don discovers Grandma's house is now a grocery store, he begins traveling across Iowa searching for a proper resting place for his father. Don's journey leads him to reconcile his past and present at the center of the United States. Leaving Iowa is a postcard to anyone who has ever found himself or herself driving alone on a road, revisiting fond memories of his or her youth.

About cwACT

These days, we're more active than ever! We've launched new ventures including children specific shows, giving back to the community, and for 2017, a Haunted House! In addition to our season highlighted in this brochure, we're hosting free improv nights at our building the "Final Friday" of each month, a live Christmas radio play, and other exciting shows. Check our website and facebook page for more details, and join us.

You won't believe how much fun we have!

Interested in what goes on behind the scenes?

Private Lives, 2017

Volunteers are at the forefront of our organization. Without them, cwACT would cease to exist. Our volunteers have diverse backgrounds – come arrive without experience, while others have theater degrees. No matter, they have in common the desire to meet people and be part of a team, to share their enthusiasm for theater, to learn and create, and to see amazing performances evolved from their efforts.
